2009-2010 WINTER CAMP SCHEDULE

Session Descriptions

Great Winter Getaway Session #101, 107

You can make your winter break something memorable at Camp Friendship, while enjoying outdoor activities such as broom ball, cross country skiing and dropping your line in Clearwater Lake. Be creative with art and music. Keep active with recreational games, foose ball, ping-pong or air hockey in the game room and take advantage of "The Camp Gap" our cool camp store.

All Kids Belong Session #102

All children, with or without disabilities, are eligible to attend. You may invite a friend or sibling to attend with you. Everyone will be involved in traditional camp activities and will share in the fun, excitement and friendship that camp has to offer. Activities offered are the same as described in the "Great Winter Getaway". Fees are the same for all children. All children meeting scholarship requirements are eligible for financial assistance.

Something New at Camp Friendship

Friendship Retreat (week) Session #120

Friendship Retreat (weekend) Session #801,802

Friendship Retreat option is for the person who is looking for a vacation that they are involved in choosing activities that are interesting and challenging. Activities are designed to support independence with guidance and direction from counselors and other staff. Eligibility includes ages 16 and older, ability to complete their daily living skills with minimal assistance, can be unsupervised for a short period of time and will have a 1:5 counselor to camper staffing ratio.

Something New at Eden Wood Center

Winter Day Camp Session #901

Something NEW with each day packed with fun activities including arts and crafts, creative movement and dance, singing, sledding and more. This day camp combines activities on site with visits to local community parks and recreation areas, museums, theaters and other Twin Cities metro area attractions. Transportation is provided by van to offsite activities. The program operates from 9:00 a.m –4:30 p.m

Winter Weekender

at Camp Friendship (CF) & Eden Wood (EW)

These weekends are for individuals who work or attend school during the week. Join in the fun on Friday evening and head home late Sunday afternoon. Broom ball, sledding, snow shoeing and snow painting are some of the winter activities you may choose to become involved with, along with other traditional indoor camp activities.

Special interest sessions offer creative leisure experiences that focus on a particular activity. While participating in one of these sessions, participants will spend a portion of each day involved in the activity. Enrollment is limited.

Snack Attack Session #103

From crunchy treats to fun and healthy bites, build your cookbook to take home with delightful recipes to satisfy you between meals.

Scrapbooking Session #104

Photos capture the moment, put them into an album to celebrate and share your memories. Bring 15-20 photos and you will create a special book by sessions end.

Movin' and Groovin' Session #105

Just got to get up and dance! If you love to dance to a wide variety of music, then this session is for you. We'll play today's rock, oldies and a little country for those two steppers. Learn line dancing and a country western two step. Perform at the camp talent show.

Speed Stack Session #106

It's the latest craze at camp! With your own set of cups learn the art of Speed Stack. Learn the 3-6-3 cycle to get started, increase your speed, hand-eye coordination, self confidence and good sportsmanship. All ages love Speed Stack.

Friendship Art Studio Session #108

Perfect for the budding artist. Explore your creativity... dabble in watercolors, mosaics, beadwork and more. Display your work in the Friendship Art Gallery at the end of the week.

Winter Sports Fan Session #109

When the snow flies the fun continues at camp. Enjoy a different winter sport each day with cross-country skiing, snow shoeing, broomball and ice fishing. Bring winter gear to keep warm, we will supply the equipment and instruction.
